A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies and gentlemen of Arcadia to call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Durrance on Thursday afternoon between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 to meet and welcome Rev. and Mrs. Geo. F. Scott, who have recently come in our midst. Rev. Scott is the pastor for this year of Trinity Methodist church.

Be Sharp Music Club.

The Be Sharp Music Club met Saturday afternoon with Miss Vera Lamb. There was a large attendance present, and an enjoyable program given.

Delicious hot chocolate and wafers were served.

The next meeting will be Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with Miss Emily Poozer.

COMING LYCEUM ATTRACTIONS.

The splendid entertainment given by Cartwright Brothers at the school auditorium last night under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association lyceum committee will create interest on the part of the public as to the other attractions arranged for the season. The Alkalist Favorites will appear in January, rendering a charming musical program, the ladies comprising the troupe being artists of high attainments and rare talent.

Booth Lowry, of Mississippi, had perhaps more return engagements often repeated than any lecturer on the southern platform. Versatile and eloquent, he holds his audiences with wonderful power and enlivens the occasion with flashes of wit and humor.

Frederick Ward, the great actor and author, and now one of the leading lyceum and chautauqua attractions in the country, will appear in February.

The committee has concluded to accommodate those who failed to secure season tickets prior to last night, by offering for sale tickets for the remaining three numbers at practically the same rates. The prices will be: Adults double tickets for season of three numbers, $3.00; single adult tickets, $1.75; school children, 75 cents. All tickets include secure seats for season.

For tickets or information apply in person or by phone to C. H. Mitchell, Rev. J. W. Vesey or H. G. Jones, members of Lyceum Committee.

BRETHREN ORGANIZE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

According to previous announcement, quite a number of the members of the Church of the Brethren met yesterday morning at the home of Rev. S. W. Ball on East Oak street, and organized a Sunday school with the following officers:

Superintendent, C. H. Slifer, Assistant superintendent, William Borroughs.

Secretary, Mrs. S. W. Ball, Treasurer, G. W. Elston, Choir, Mrs. C. H. Slifer, Librarian, Gaymon Ball.

It was decided to meet at the home of Rev. Ball at 10 o'clock each Sunday until the new chapel is completed. This chapel is to be erected at once on the lot purchased for the church site at the corner of Hickory street and Pasco avenue.

At the 11 o'clock hour Rev. Ball delivered a sermon full of practical thought. All residents of Arcadia and vicinity not attending church or Sunday school are cordially invited to attend any and all services by those who constitute "The Arcadia Church of the Brethren."
